THEM WITHOUT MUCH OPPOSITION-LIVELY TIMES IN SEVERAL OF THE

GATHERINGS, WITH POLICE TO RESTORE ORDER.

In the thirty-five Assembly districts of the city last evening Republican conventions were held to elect delegates and alternates to the Republican State Convention, which meets in Saratoga next Tuesday. As had been expected, the machine Reblicans carried a majority of the conventions, and in most of the conventions there was no serious opposition. There were contests in some of the conventions, and at a few the disorder was so great that the police had to be called in.

In the 1st Assembly District the convention was seld at No. 21 Greenwich-st., and the police had called on account of a lively fight there. The lealy brothers had control of the hall, and refused o admit a crowd of machine Republicans, who were said to be trying to pack the convention. In he conflict at the doors it was asserted that a Platt delegate with credentials was refused admitance. The anti-Platt men controlled the convenvention in another place and elected a contesting

In the convention of the XIVth Assembly District the police prevented a fight, but two sets of delegates were elected, the Anti-Machine men apparently having a majority of the delegates.

At the convention in the XXVth Assembly District held in the headquarters at No. 17 West Twentyfourth-st., the proceedings were short and sharp. Under the leadership of Amasa Thornton the regulars carried through the cut and dried resolutions with a vote of 97 to 20. Mr. Thornton and four of his followers were elected as delegates to the State | IV: Convention, and the resolution instructed the del gation to vote as a unit for Mr. Thornton as the member of the State Committee from the XIIth Congrees District. This meant a decisive victory for Mr. Thornton over Thurlow Weed Barnes, another Platt man who has held the position of State Committeeman from the district. The opposition in the vention made a great deal of noise, and the language was unparliamentary at times, but the regulars equelched offensive speakers and voted down hostile amendments without difficulty.

FUSS IN THE XXVITH.

The contest in the XXVIth Assembly District was a hot one, and the convention, which was held in rooms of the Ivy Republican Club, at No. 1.228 Third-ave. was lively from start to finish. The machine men started in to claim everything, but were defeated by a vote of 50 to 38. The successful Anti-Machine men were led by John Little, president of the Ivy Club, and the anti-Platt Republican leader in the district, and the machine men were led by Jastrow Alexander. The latter presented a list of names of delegates certified to by the Republican County Committee, and insisted that they and they only were entitled to vote in the convention. Chairman Little declared that the list of delegates sent in by the election officers of the eighteen election districts in the Assembly district was the correct one. Alexander refused to abide by this ruling and insisted on holding a convention of his own. He mounted a chair and the machine men railied about him.

There was much shouting and jostling, and the police rushed into the hall to restore order. Things then quieted down, and Chairman Little requested the police to retire. They no sooner got outside however, than the trouble broke out again, and Mr Little called them back, and requested them to remove all disturbers. The machine men were pushed out, and the convention proceeded to business. full number of Anti-Machine delegates to the State Convention were then elected, and the result of the election sent to the County Committee. When Jastro Alexander was seen outside of the hall he said that the machine men had also held a convention and elected their ticket. He declared that this was accomplished while the police were trying to eject the machine men. The "Antis" held a jollification after the convention was over, and cheered Mr. Little repeatedly Mr. Little said that the County Committee had no right to send an amended list of delegates to the convention.

TWO CONVENTIONS AGAIN.

An attempt of machine Republicans to pack the convention in the XXVIIth Assembly District, at No. 769 Sixth-ave., was frustrated by the police under the command of Captain Sheehan, who, at the request of members of the County Committee from the district, prevented any person from entering the hall who could not show credentials as a delegate. A man who was said to have been sent from the headquarters of the County Committee to act as chairman of the convention was kept out with the rest. A large crowd of machine men filled the street. Senator Page and "Sol" Berliner were stationed at the door by the police & see that only delegates were admitted.
*When the convention was called to order, and R.

H. Lewis held been selected as chairman without serious opposition, the machine men saw that they were in the minority, and they left the hall, led by Berliner. A large majority of the delegates re mained, and the convention proceeded in an orderly manner to elect five delegates and five alternates to the State Convention. The bolters held another convention, at which a contesting delegation

The Republicans of the XXVIIIth District had ar unusually lively time at their convention held at No. 249 East Eighty-first-st., the district clubrooms. The anti-Platt men say that they had appealed to the County Committee to select a neutral hall for the convention but without success. There were two tickets in the field. The machine ticket bore the names of Edward Lauterbach, who was also running in his own Assembly District, the XXIXth, John H. Gunner and Henry H. Guttmann, with Joseph J. Mendel, Martin M. The meeting was opened at 8 p. m. by Henry H. Guttmann. Christian Herrlich at once nominate Benjamin Oppenheimer as temporary chairman. Mr. Guttmann ignored Mr. Herrlich and proceeded to read a roll of delegates which had been gotter up by the County Committee, and which the inti-Machine men refused to acknowledge, on the ground that it had been altered to suit the purposes of the opposing faction. The copies of the roll which the anti-organization men saw were unsigned,

While the roll was being read Mr. Herrlich mounted the platform and shouted: "We acknowledge no roll," and Dr. Smith, who stood by, said: Gentlemen we need no roll; you have your crelowed, each faction shouting at the top of their demanding that the temporary chairman be elected. Herrlich then called for the year and nays on Oppenheimer's nomination and declared cted. Mr. Oppenheimer took the platform, with the aid of the police, and managed to oust Gutt-mann after a lively struggle. He then went on, as temporary chairman, to call for nominations for temporary secretaries, who were elected, and called next for the delegates to advance and present their credentials. The Anti-Machine men filed up, as their election districts were called, and acceded to this request. Meanwhile, John J. C. Tuers had himself elected as temporary chairman by the Platt faction, and was running an opposition meeting near Men on each side rose and shouted unpleasant things at each other, and Inspector Brooks had to threaten more than once to clear the hall before he could restore any sort of order.

Votes on the two tickets were called for by each chairman, after the temporary officers had been elected as permanent, and the two factions elected adjourned and filed out of the hall amid a chorus of hisses from the opposing crowd. Mr. Oppen heimer declared that the opposition men had neg-lected to elect a chairman for the Campaign Committee, and had boiled the convention. The Anti-Organization men then elected a campaign committee, with Christian Herrlich as chairman, and adjourned. They contend that sixty-one delegates ticket, thus securing a majority out of the 108 delegates of the district. The Platt men announced, when they counted their voices, that sixty-seven men had voted for them.

After the meeting a Tribune reporter saw the twenty-six certificates which had been presented to the Anti-Machine officers presiding. They were the land, and he is more than satisfied with the prog regular credentials of delegates representing twenty-six out of thirty-eight election districts, and each bore the signatures of two or more election inspectors, as the law requires.

MINNESOTA FALLING INTO LINE. THE SILVER TIDE RECEDES BEFORE THE AVA-LANCHE OF GOLD LITERATURE AND

Chicago, Aug. 21.-It was a quiet day at National Republican headquarters so far as it relates to news for the public and distinguished visitors. National Committeeman Hubbard came in from his State, Minnesota, and reported the silver tide receding before the avalanche of gold literature and the arguments of able speakers.

The Colored Republican Bureau opened for business to-day. Professor R. T. Greener, of New-York, ex-secre tary of the Grant Memorial Association, is one of the officials in charge. Their quarters are on the thirteenth floor of the Auditorium Building. The wheelmen's organization has also been moved to that floor, alongside the colored workers.

"The Railway Age" continues to report the daily clubs throughout the West and South, with large memberships. Senator Burrows was assigned to-day to speak in St. Louis September 8, and in Kansas City the next day.

CHEMUNG ELECTS BAXTER DELEGATES. Elmira, Aug. 21.-At the Republican caucuses in Chemung County to-day delegates were elected favorable to the candidacy of Ccionel Archie E

Baxter for Governor. The Congress delegates to be chosen at the Horseheads convention to-mor row will favor the nomination of William R. Comp-ton, of Horseheads, for member of Congress. CAMPAIGN OPENING IN WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, Conn., Aug. 21 (Special).-The first political meeting of the season here will be held to morrow afternoon under the auspices of the Woodstock McKinley and Hobart Campaign Club, of which Dr. George Austin Bouler, Surgeon-General of Connecticut, is president. This club was the first McKinley club organized in Connecticut after McKinley's nomination. The speakers include John Addison Porter, candidate for Governor of Con-necticut; Congressman Charles A. Russell, of the Ways and Means Committee; Secretary of State William C. Mowry, of Norwich, and Judge Barthol-omew, of Southbridge, Mass.

REPUBLICAN WOMEN'S WORK. It was announced at a meeting of the West End at Eighty-second-st, and Columbus-ave., yesterday afternoon, that the campaign headquarters of the auxiliary, at No. 1,473 Broadway, would be opened the latter part of next week. Miss Helen Varick Boswell, National treasurer of the association, will be in charge, assisted by a committee, which will superintend the circulation of campaign literature.

Mrs. Clarence Burns has already begun her work in the tenement-house district. She is assisted by Mrs. J. G. Wentz, Mrs. A. A. Pattingill, Mrs. James Fairman, Miss Mildred Reid, Mrs. Bertha Welby, Mrs. W. H. Trafton and Miss Emma Beckwith. The work of the committee consists of a house-to-house canvass and the distribution to women of two tracts, "Sixteen to One" and "Silver and Gold-A Chat of Four Neighbors." The tracts will be printed in German, Bohemian and English. Mrs. Burns presided at the meeting. Miss Florence R. Kirkwood read a paper on the money question, giving a history of money in the United States, its uses and functions. Miss Boswell spoke briefly on "Young Women in Republican Work." saying that she believed young women could do a great deal toward influencing the votes of young men. Welby, Mrs. W. H. When one of Mr. Hanna's callers remarked the other day upon the mar vellous way he had brought order from confusion, the chairman said laughingly: "There is an old rule in billiards about taking the shot nearest to you, and so avoid walking around the table. The best way I have found is to evade nothing, and as each question is presented dispose of it at the time, and not have it coming back again." That explains in a way his success in getting things in shape. When in the West Mr. Hanna practically ignored the Eastern headquarters unless he was called upon When he left Chicago it was with the satisfaction of knowing that everything was going well. He has left the Chicago work in the hands of at the headquarters there temporarily, and he is now busy with Eastern questions. Mr. Hanna has been looking over the situation in New-Eng-

WORK IN THE SOUTH.

That the campaign is going to be pushed in the South is another reported move on the part of Mr. Hanna. The Republican Executive Committee believe that a rattling fight will break up the solid South and place one or more States below Mason and Dixon's line in the Republican column. The centinued absence of Senator Quay in the far South, and the various reports about his tarpon fishing excursions, might lend to the belief that he is temperarily neglecting the campaign, but there other tale to tell. The Senator is said to be in the South in the interest of the Executive Committee, quietly looking over the ground, and when he comes back will be well informed as to the best methods to follow in making a fight in the South He is expected here in a few days. North Carolina, Florida, Louisiana and Texas are looked upon as good fighting ground, and in these States, as well as the other Southern States, so it is reported, hard battle will be waged.

Senator Thurston had a conference with Mr. Hanna yesterday about the work he is to do in New-England, Mr. Thurston's hope is that Nebraska, the home of William J. Bryan, will cast its vote for McKinley, and to assure this he is working indefatigably. "The silver sentiment has lost ground steadily since the Chicago Convendeclared Mr. Thurston yesterday, "and no where to such a degree as in the West. I have not the slightest doubt about Nebraska. I have spoken twice in Wisconsin recently, and from what the Republicans there tell me, the majority for McKin-ley will be a large one. The West will be all right when votes are counted."

Among others who saw Mr. Hanna yesterday was Major J. Henry Gould, president of the Massasetts Republican State League, and member of the Executive Committee of the Republican League of the United States. Major Gould spoke confidently of Republican success in New-England, "We have had very few defections from our ranks on account of free silver," said he, "while our accessions in the way of sound-money Democrats are many. We shall lose few votes, while we shall gain a very large number, offsetting our losses probably eight to one. There is no fear of Massa-chusetts, and I think I can say as much of the other New-England States."

ASSIGNMENT OF SPEAKERS.

The vigorous campaign now being conducted by the leaders in charge of the headquarters here inludes the holding of large meetings in all the Eastern States. General Powell Clay charge of the speakers, yeaterday announced the following assignments: Senator John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, to speak at Burlington, Vt., on August 25, and at Middlebury, Vt., on August 27. He will go to Syracuso to speak on September 3, returning ty New-York to deliver an address on September 10. Two days later he will speak in Baltimore, on September 8 in Richmond, and on September 10 in Wheeling, W. Va.

Among the other assignments of speakers are 0. V. Tousley, of Minnesota, to go to Maine for one week beginning September 7; General Cyrus Bussey, of Washington, D. C., ex-Assistant Secretary of the Interior, to speak in Montpeller, Vt., August 27, and in Middlebury, August 28.

Recent appointments by the Speakers' Bureau for the Maine campaign include Charles Emory Smith, Editor of "The Philadelphia Press," August 28 to September 1; Congressman Screno E. Payne, of Auburn, N. Y., August 31 to September 5; Curtis Guild, ir., of Boston, September 8 to 12; John 8, Wise, of New-York, September 8 and 9; George Edmund Foss, of Illinois, September 10. charge of the speakers, yesterday announced the

McKinley sentiment among the railroad men and who was formerly of the United States Inspecting Engineer Corps, and is engaged in the construction of the line mentioned. He said: "At Whippany there are five large paper mills, one of them being the largest pasteboard factory in the world, employing a great number of men. The experience of these men under the present tariff law has opened their eyes and they are earnestly for protection. They want work and fair wages, paid in appeared strong after the Chicago Convention, is plainly weakening, and Hilmois will be all right in ment in the eastern part of the State, where the people are more or less interested in the white metal and where they are influenced by the minmetal and where they are influenced by the mining interests of Western Idaho. The western part of Washington, however, I am confident, is for sound money. The campaign for McKinley and a safe currency is waged vigorously under the leadership of Governor McGraw, Senator Wilson and Andrew F. Burleigh. The largest political gathering in the history of the State was the McKinley ratification meeting held in Seattle about ten days ago. While the free-silver Republicans have fused with the Democrats and Populists on a State ticket, and may possibly elect it, I am positive that we shall carry the National ticket."

A much clearer understanding of the currency question is evident among the people in parts of New-England as a result of the campaign of education conducted so far, according to Colonel George C. Hazleton, of Washington, D. C., formerly member of Congress from Wisconsin, who has just returned from a trip through New-England. He said yesterday:

"I took pains to talk with voters wherever I found them-merchants, teamsters, barbers, farmers, professional men, laborers and others-and perceived there was a pretty fair idea in their minds concerning the real principle at stake. The sentiment for sound money is very strong, and the men who entertain it are going for McKinley as the only candidate representing it. The voters of New-England know how free silver would affect their wages and general prosperity. Everybody is intensely intersied, and discussions are going on everywhere."

Reports from the Republican headquarters in Chicago were received over the long-distance telephone as follows:

Among the caliers at headquarters to-day was Governey Hubbard of Winnesota a member of ing interests of Western Idaho. The western

THE MIDDLE WEST'S STAND.

A CLOSE OBSERVER THINKS THE REAC-TION FROM THE SILVER CRAZE HAS BEGUN.

EXAGGERATED NOTIONS OF THE FREE-SILVER STRENGTH-SUBSTANTIAL CITIZENS

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Washington, Aug. 21 .- A man of unusually close habits of observation and statement thus outlines a Tribune correspondent the situation in the Middle West, from which he has recently returned: "I made it my business to talk with people of all parties and correct one man's statements by another's. I started out with the full knowledge that in certain States there had been a powerful trend toward free silver. I found in every State visited, after careful inquiry, that the refluent wave had set in steadily. I will give you one instance of many, which accounts both for the present state of feeling and for the exaggerated notions of the craze which are entertained in the East. There was an influential German named Schmidt-or we will call him Schmidt. He lived three miles from a small place where I was sojourning for a day or Everybody who adhered to free-silver ideas told me that there were recruits from the Republicans, some of them the strongest men-socially in

They said, Schmidt-a man of considerable property. out to his farm, and, desiring to have as little formailty about my visit as possible, ordered the driver to stop my vehicle in the shade near the residence, and I sent word that I desired to speak to Mr. Schmidt. He came out. But I first got a drink of water, and that gave me a pretext for stopping there. The man was pretty communicative and we soon got to discussing silver. He employed the usual arguments in favor of the free coinage of both metals, laying emphasis on making an experiment, as there had been hard times for farmers and matters could not be worse.

said I, 'you are going to vote for Bryan and Sewall.' 'No," he replied; 'I am a Republican.'

"'But,' I rejoined, 'you were using the arguments of the Democrats and Populists.' "Well," he rejoined, 'McKinley is our candidate and I can trust him to do what is best, even if he opposed to my own views. Anyhow, I am a Re-

"That man represents thousands of Republicans who are supposed to have gone over to the Bryan party. His neighbors had got the idea from his carnest advocacy of free silver that he had intended to support Bryan. And yet he was as zealous a McKiney man as any that I met. He was, too, the only one in the neighborhood whose name the free silverites could give me as a convert to their cause. 'So I found it elsewhere. In the State of loward there will not be a change of 1 per cent from the large Republican majority heretofore cast in Presidential years. Wisconsin is another State where calms have been made without foundation. I took particular pains to find out how the German Democratis stood. In many cases the sons are Republicans and will vote for McKinley. The fathers, however, talked about personal liberty, the Bennett law, etc. I asked one of them if he was not a sound-money man. 'Oh, yes,' he sald, 'nearly all the German's in this country are,' 'How will you vote?' Well,' he responded, 'If the Indianapolis Convention will give us a strong sound-money platform and ticket I shall be satisfied with them.' Here I discovered that the fathers would vote for their opposition speakers, so strong is the song fathers would vote for their called the Chicago platform by supporting an honterbuck that that he fathers would vote for their own party. writer says. Nebraska will give McKinley 20,000 majority. Not a man in New-York will believe this; but, by the Eternal, he will. I wish you would do me the favor to find some Democrat who will take the following bets: One hundred dollars each that "Baby" Bryan don't carry his own ward, his own city, his own county, his own Congress district, his own State, and the United States for President.

GOOD WORK OF MEMBERS OF THE HAT TRADE.

The members of the hat trade in this city are taking great interest in the Presidential campaign this year, and the large majority of them are working for the election of the Republican candidates. They have already hung twelve McKinley and Hobart panners across streets in various parts of the city and have organized a campaign committee in the nterests of sound money and sound Government. The officers of the committee are Alexander Caldwell, of Bill & Caldwell, vice-chairman; Emil Rinke, Edelhoff & Rinke, treasurer, and L. D. Gallison, of the Gallison & Hobron Company, secretary. The other members of the committee are Charles H. Ten-

The way to cure disease is to cure the cause of the disease—to go right at the head of the matter. There is no use treating symptoms. Disease cannot exist in a body that is perfectly pure and full of healthful, strength giving properties. It can be made pure by the use of Dr. Pierce's great medicine, the "Golden Medical Discovery." It is because of its wonderful, blood purifying and invigorating qualities that this remedy is so marvelous in its effect on diseases of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs. It cures ninety-eight per cent of all cases of consumption. It stops lingering, chronic coughs, and builds up those who are "run-down," emaciated or debilitated from any cause. AT THE WASHINGTON HEADQUARTERS. GOOD REPORTS RECEIVED BY CHAIRMAN BAB-COCK FROM MANY PARTS OF THE Washington, Aug. 21.-Chairman Babcock of the Republican Congress Committee has returned from New-York, where he attended a conference of the leaders, including Chairman Hanna. Mr. Babcock is enthusiastic over the outlook in both the State and much Major McKinley will have, and it would not surprise him in the least to see it closely approximate the 300,000 figure, exceeding the vote by which Cleveland defeated Folger for the Governorship. Advice: ceived at New-York headquarters from all parts of the State are of the most encouraging character, and in the city itself everything points to Republican Advices received here from Representative Mondell, of Wyoming, are to the effect that matters are daily becoming brighter for the Republicans and the probabecoming brighter for the Republicans and the probabilities are that McKinley will carry the State by a larger plurality than that given Harrison. The Democrats and Populists are at loggerheads on the subject of fusion, and there will be three Congress televis to the field. As a result, Mr. Mondell expects to have a comparative walkover. The Populists made the first nomination, placing Judge Brown in the field. The Democrats refused to indorse him and nominated ex-Governor Odwell. Both parties persist in adhering to the choice originally made, and the prospects of fusion are vague and Indefinite.

Chairman Babcock says the reports received continue to be all that could be desired. The president of a country club, in writing as to the effect of some literature distributed, says that the Judicious placing of 200 documents has had the result of bringing sixty-four doubtful and wavering votes into line and converting them into stalwart Republicans.

ROBBINS TO RUN INDEPENDENTLY. NOMINATED BY A MAJORITY OF THE REPUB-LICANS OF ALLEGANY COUNTY. Belmont, N. Y., Aug. 21 (Special).-The Independent Republican Convention was held at the Courthouse in this village this afternoon, with delegates from every one of the twenty-nine towns There was a large number of admirers of F. A. Robbins to boom his cause, and they had four brass bands to help along the enthusiasm. Dr. H. A. Barney, of Amity, called the convention to order, and Frank S. Smith was permanent chair-

Mr. Smith made the speech of the day. He said that the petitions calling for this convention were signed by a majority of all the Republican voters in the county. This was not a bolt, but an uprising of the people to do what the delegates cent to the convention two weeks ago had treacherously Republican was bound to support the nominee of that convention. He bitterly arraigned the organization in Allegany County, and made the assertion that ring rule had increased the expenses of the

A. L. Elliott, of Friendship, nominated Frederick A. Robbins, of Angelica, for Member of Assembly.

Robbins, of Angelica, for Member of Assembly. The roll of towns was called and every delegation seconded the nomination. The vote was taken by calling the roll of delegates, and Robbins was nominated unanimously.

A committee was appointed to inform him of his success and escort him to the platform. After stating that before and at the close of the former convention he had not desired to be nominated on an independent ticket, but that the pressure which had been brought to bear upon him was such that his duty to his supporters of last year had caused him to change his mind and accept the trust, he promised continued fealty to the Republican party, but refused to be bound by any man or organization of men as against his honest convictions. He then thanked the convention and took his seat. Applause met him at every paragraph of his speech, Resolutions indorsing McKinley and Hobart and the St. Louis platform, and promising fealty to Mr. Robbins, were passed. A Robbins Executive Committee to carry on the campaign was appointed, consisting of one member from each town.

CONFIDENT OF INDIANA.

Washington, Aug. 21 (Special) .- "It is going to be a close fight in Indiana between the two great par-ties," said Clifford Arrick, of Indianapolis, at the Riggs House. "I am afraid that if the election were to come off right away, Bryan would carry His neighbors had got the idea from his | the State; but between this and November a great for repudiation and depreciation of our standard of value. Their appeals to Democratic voters will have far more weight than could the arguments of Republican crators; in fact, it would be hard to get people who had been voting the Democratic licket to listen to opposition speakers, so strong is the sense of partisanship in Indiana. But when Democrats face their own kind and advise them to rebuke the Chicago platform by supporting an honest-money candidate of their own party, I am satisfied it will take away thousands of votes from Bryan. Indianapolis itself will give McKinley a sweeping majority."

SOUND-MONEY DEMOCRATS IN RYE. A TEMPORARY ORGANIZATION EFFECTED AND RINGING RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

About forty citizens of Rye gathered at the Lycum in that village on Thursday night in answer to a call for a meeting of sound-money Democrats. temporary organization was effected by making John A. Gwynne chairman and Hamilton Fairfax secretary. The chairman was empowered to appoint committees on enrolment, finance and permanent organization, and these committees are pected to report at the next meeting. Several speeches were made which aroused considerable enthusiasm, and the following resolutions were enthusiasm, and the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, The Democratic National Convention, which met at Chicago, surrendered the time-honored principles of the Democratic party to the Populistic elements of the Nation; and, Whereas, The platform there adopted, against the emphatic protests of a patriotic minority, is at entire variance with the Democratic faith, and constitutes an attack upon the credit and honor of this Nation, seeking to commit the Democratic party to a vicious policy of repudiation and rula, in direct opposition to the time-honored principles of the party, as exemplified by such great leaders as Jefferson, Jackson and Tilden, and to substitute in their stead the doctrines of communism and socialism as exemplified by such leaders as Altgeld, Tillman and Bryan; and.

Whereas, The candidate nominated at that Convention for the exalted office of Chief Magistrate of this great Nation has within the last six months declared publicity that he was not a Democrat, but was a Populist.

Resolved, That we, Democrats of the town of Rye, repudiate the platform and candidates of the so-called Democratic National Convention, believing it to be subversive of the honor, integrity and good order of the Nation, and that its success in the pending election would result in the destruction of the great Democratic party, of which we are reembers, and to whose principles we explicitly pledge our fatithful adherence and our untiring labors for its preservation and prosperity.

FOR A JOINT DEBATE IN TENNESSEE. Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 21 (Special).-The Republican State Executive Committee met here to-day and elected Dr. D. B. Cliffe, of Franklin, chairman, and A. M. Tillman, of Nashville, secretary. The ommittee accepted an invitation from the Demo committee accepted an invitation from the Demo-cratic State Executive Committee for a joint can-vass of the State between the Democratic and Republican nominees for Governor, on condition that the nominee of the Populist party be also ad-mitted to the joint debate.

SOUND-MONEY CLUBS OF RAILROAD MEN Baltimore, Aug. 21 (Special).-Sound-money clubs, with an aggregate membership of nearly a thousand, have been organized by the employes of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad at various points along the company's lines in Maryland and West Virginia. The movement was started only about two weks ago, and it is estimated that a total membership 5,000 or more will be reached before the election. The organizations are strictly non-partisan, the obligation taken by those joining merely binding them to vote in favor of sound money and against the free coinage of silver.

A CALL TO MARYLAND SOUND-MONEY MEN. Baltimore, Aug. 21 .- A rallying call was issued city in which it is asserted that no National ticket has yet been nominated, and calling upon the friends of sound money to meet next Thursday at the Hotel Rennert with the view of selecting six-teen delegates to represent the gold-standard ele-ment of Maryland Democracy at the Indianapolis Convention.

SECRETARY MORTON AND CONTROLLER ECKELS EXPECTED TO ATTEND THE INDIANAPOLIS CONVENTION-THE FEELING IN

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Indianapolis, Aug 21 .- The mail of the Executive Committee of the National Democracy is growing latly, and one letter to-day contained the names of 150 Democrats in one small county pledged to sup port the nominees of the Indianapolis Convention. though Governor Matthew's estimate of the total vote was 2,000. The movement in the country as large, the leaders say, is growing in like proportion, and Chairman Bynum is getting bolder in his claims. He started this afternoon for Peorla to speak, and said before leaving that the reports which are still circulating to the effect that the Convention will not select candidates come from the enemies of the movement in the sliver wing of the party. Mr. Bynum says that by the end of next week delegates to the Convention from forty-two States will have been selected, and that each was chosen for the purpose outlined in the call, without discretion as to whether a ticket shall be named or not

C. Vey Holman, of Maine, telegraphed to-day that his State would be represented by a large delegation. W. B. Halderman, of Kentucky, telegraphed that the convention in Louisville last night was one of the largest ever held in the State

Gordon Woodbury, of New-Hampshire: W. M. Perl, of Tacoma, Wash., and others from Minnesota, Connecticut and Colorado, sent word that full delegations would report. The Colorado delegation will be headed by Louis Ehrich, an authority on the Controller Eckels to-day secured quarters at the Bates House, and it is expected that Secretary Moron will attend the Convention. A letter from Sec ton will attend the Convention. A letter from Secretary of the Navy Herbert plainty indicates that he is with the sound-money movement, but that he will not be able to attend the Convention owing to his absence in Europe. There is no longer any doubt that Postmaster-General Wilson is also in favor of the movement. The position which his son has taken is said to be a sure sign of the father's inclination. The son is out and cut for a third ticket.

The coming of Mr. Eckels and Secretary Morion is thought to be a propilious sign that the President is allied silently with the National Democracy. Letters are coming in praising the address given to the country by the Executive Committee at Chicago, and Edward Atkinson, who was asked to submit a draft of the platform, wrote that he could not conceive of the committee needing any other head than that from which emanated the address. He, however, contributed a draft.

Senator Caffery will be here, and it is on the card to provide a prominent place for him in the Convention organization, it is now probable that Bourke Cockram will be selected for temporary chairman and Senator Caffery for permanent chairman.

M. E. Ingalis, of the 'Big Four' system, who is mentioned for a place on the ticket, is to be here. The committee has received information from New-York that both the regular Democracy and the Anti-Snappers will come to some agreement in reference to the new party. The reports lead the committee to believe that both wings of the State party will be supporting the National Democratic ticket by the middle of September.

It is reported that the National headquarters of the movement will be taken to Chicago after the Convention. The Indianapolis commercial bodies will try to persuade the new National Committee to allow the headquarters to continue here. retary of the Navy Herbert plainly indicates that

WHAT IS MR. CLEVELAND'S ATTITUDE? SOME GOOD AUTHORITIES SAY HE IS AGAINST & NOMINATION AT INDIANAPOLIS, OTHERS

SAY HE IS FOR QNE. Washington, Aug. 21 (Special).-The attitude of the President with reference to the question of the hour continues to puzzle most of his friends. "Positive and reliable" information, given with a knowing shake of the head, is furnished by some of his followers that Mr. Cleveland will try to povent the nomination of an independent ticket by the gold Democrats at Indianapolis, while others declare with equal emphasis that he will strongly advocate the nomination of a ticket. Whether this is vacillation on the part of Mr. Cleveland and a lack of frankness in dealing with gentlemen who are close to him, or whether it is gueswork en both sides it is difficult to say. The statement has come from very good sources that Mr. Cleveland is likely to write a letter which may lead the convention to be satisfied with simply making a declaration of principles and leaving the gold Democratsfree to vore for McKinley. This statement is strengthened somewhat by the interview published this morning with Senator Palmer, in which doubt is expressed as to the wisdom of making nominations at Indianapolis. Yet there is exceptionally good authority to-day for the statement that Mr. Cleveland has now decided to recommend an independent gold Democratic nomination, urging the importance of maintaining Democratic principles as he understands them, including free trade and the gold standard, and arguing against the advisability of Democrats supporting McKinley, who is the chief antagonist of one of the great principles that Cleveland Democracy stands for—free trade. It is said that he will insist upon the great importance of the Democrats who, according to him, are to preserve pure Democracy, standing out not for one only, but for all the Democratic principles, and preserving Clevelandism in all its purity. which doubt is expressed as to the wisdom of mak-

ILLINOIS SOUND-MONEY DEMOCRATS. NEARLY EVERY COUNTY WILL BE REPRESENTED IN THE COMING STATE CONVENTION.

Chicago, Aug. 21.-The State Central Committee of the sound-money Democracy met yesterday in the Palmer House and continued the work of preparing for their State Convention, which will be held here next Tuesday. Very favorab's reports were received from many counties of the tate, and at the conclusion of the meeting it was announced It is certain that each of the twenty-two Congress districts will have delegations here, although some of them will be small. The XXth District appears to be the most stubborn in refusing to recognize the call of the sound-money Democrats. Reports in the hands of Secretary Spangler indicate that all but three of the 102 counties in the cate that all but three of the 162 counties in the State will be represented on the floor of the convention by bona fide delegates.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21.—Senator Palmer, when asked to-day if it were true that he had recently said at Taylorville that "sound-money Democrats will make a platform only, will name no ticket and that they are likely to vote for McKinley," replied: "I did not say that. I have no doubt the Indianapolis convention will make nominations and will adopt a platform asserting sound Democratic principles. I think that is the present purpose, and I do not think it is within the range of probability that any other course will be adopted."

DEMOCRATS TO SPEAK FOR SOUND MONEY It was announced at the headquarters of the Democratic Honest Money League yesterday that W. Bourke Cockran had advised Major John Byrne, president of the League, that he will speak twice a week during the campaign wherever the League makes engagements for him. Requests for Mr. Cockran's services have already come from Maine, Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Illinois and Indiana. Mr. Cockran will rest for a week and then begin the work. He will not preside at the Indianapolis convention. The League is preparing to circulate Mr. Cockran's recent speech all over the country.

Perry Belmont has also informed the League that he is willing to speak in behalf of sound money wherever his services are required. He will make a speech in Brooklyn, and later will so to Indiana. Ex-Secretary Fairchild will speak under the auspices of the League at Trenton, N. J., 08 Wednesday next.

GOLD DEMOCRATS OF NEBRASKA MEET. Omaha, Neb., Aug. 21.-The gold Democrats of Nebraska named a delegation to the Indianapolis convention last night. A conference of the State Central Committee and lending Democrats to the number of nearly one hundred was held, presided over by Chairman Euclid Martin. Many speeches were made, most of which favored a third ticket and the naming of a State delegation to the National Convention. It was the consensus of opinion that a third ticket in Nebraska is not only neessary to aid in the effort to defeat Bryan, but also to preserve the regular party organization in this State after the issues of the present campaign shall have been decided at the polis.
